Director Olguin shared an example of a board self-assessment and resource from the American Library Association. Trustee Busalacchi and Trustee Kiltz will use these two resources to create a self-assessment for the Library Board.

Reports:
Director Olguin discussed the success of the Dickens event and feedback that was shared with staff. Patrons were happy that the number of people in the building was controlled. Several patrons expressed gratitude for such a fun, activity-filled, family event. Director Olguin expressed thanks to the Friends, the scouts and other volunteers who helped with the event. She also discussed that it was difficult to have such a large event and then get the library back into working condition to open at 8am the next day.

Trustee Huberty provided an update on the Friends stating that approximately 240 membership letters were stuffed and mailed to previous members for the annual membership campaign.

Adjournment at 6:30pm
