FRIENDS of the Greendale Public Library

What We Do
As a member of the Friends of the Library, you are a vital asset to the Greendale Public Library. We rely on the support of our membership to assist the library in facilitating events and programs, encouraging gifts, raising awareness and advocating for the library in the community.

The success of the Friends is centered on the involvement of our members.

The Friends have lots of volunteer opportunities available for our members. Whether you are available to help on a weekly basis, or just once per year— we can find a spot for YOU!

We All Need Friends
Join the Friends by mail or in-person at the Greendale Public Library.
